GLIAC Player of the Year
DIIB 1st Team All-American
NABC All-American

Ferris State University senior Justin Keenan been named the 2011 Division II Bulletin Player of the Year.

Keenan paced the GLIAC in scoring for the third consecutive year with a personal career-high 21.6 points per game. He had his best season on the glass with a league-best 10 rebounds a contest in regular-season action and ranked among the nation's top 20 performers in both categories.

He became the league's all-time career scoring leader and the first Bulldog player ever to earn the GLIAC's Player of the Year honor twice. Keenan totaled a league-best 16 double-double efforts and had a conference-best four games of 30 plus points or more.

"As our Preseason Player of the Year, Justin was expected to have a great season and he certainly did," said DIIB editor Gary Rubin. "He was a force on both ends of the floor for a top caliber team. He is most deserving."

Keenan headlines the DIIB All-American team, where he was joined on the first team by Bloomfield's Greg Daye, Bellarmine's Jeremy Kendle, West Liberty senior Corey Pelle and Rollins senior Nick Wolf.

Division II Bulletin has named a Player of the Year every season since the 1991-92 season.
