University of Findlay senior Josh Bostic been named the 2009 Division II Bulletin Player of the Year.

Bostic, who was the publication's Preseason Player of the Year, scored 18.6 points and grabbed 6.2 rebounds per game for the Oilers, and led them to a perfect 36-0 season. He was named the GLIAC Most Valuable Player after leading Findlay to the conference championship.

"Josh truly had an outstanding season and was the heart and soul of the best team in the country," said DIIB editor Gary Rubin. "Individually, he was a dominant force all season long and is most deserving of this award."

Bostic headlines the DIIB All-American team, where he was joined on the first team by USC Aiken's Chris Commons, Southwest Baptist's Matt Rogers, Cal Poly Pomona junior Larry Gordon and Northern State senior Kevin Rarzsch.
