NABC All-American

Carthage College senior Steve Djurickovic has been named the 2011 DIII News Player of the Year, the publication announced.

Djurickovic averaged 21.8 points and 6.6 assists this season for Carthage. He led the CCIW in scoring, assists and minutes played and was named the league's Most Valuable Player for the second straight season. He was a four-time first-team all-CCIW selection. In addition, Djurickovic was recognized as the Jostens Trophy recipient representing outstanding achievement both on and off the court.

"As our Preseason Player of the Year, we knew Steve would have a great season and he did," said DIII News editor Gary Rubin, "There were many candidates for this award, but at the end of the day we felt Steve was the most deserving."

Djurickovic was joined on the DIIIN All-American first team by Olivet's Michael McClary, Wooster's Ian Franks, Wisconsin La Crosse's Tony Mane and Kean senior Jonathan Jones.

DIIIN has selected a Player of the Year every season since 1993-94.
