• Note: Not every conference selects a Coach of the Year

Thomas More College head coach Jeff Hans has been named the 2015 Schelde Sports/Women's DIII News Coach of the Year.

Hans led his Saints to a perfect 33-0 overall record and the 2015 Division III national championship.

"Only nine other Division III women's teams have ever achieved a perfect season so Jeff is to be commended for his efforts this year. He had a talented team and he molded them into champions," said WDIIN editor and publisher Gary Rubin. "He adds his name to the long list of distinguished winners dating back to 1994. Along with Schelde Sports, we are pleased to recognize him for his achievement and hard work."

"College basketball coaches sacrifice a great deal for their professions, and winning a national championship with a perfect record takes an outstanding effort from the first day of practice to the final buzzer in March," said Jim Peterson, president of Schelde Sports, a leading basketball goal and equipment manufacturer. "Schelde Sports is honored to partner with Women's DIII News to recognize Jeff Hans and all the Division III coaches."

Women's DIII News has named a Coach of the Year every season since the 1993-94 season.
