Coach of the Year

Swarthmore head coach Landry Kosmalski is the 2020 DIII News/SNA Sports Coach of the Year.

Kosmalski guided his Garnet to an undefeated regular season record. His team was the only NCAA men's program (Division I, II or III) to not lose a regular season contest and was ranked No. 1 at the conclusion of the regular season schedule. The Garnet fell in the Centennial Conference championship to Johns Hopkins 73-71.

"This award dates back to 1994 and Landry puts his name among a long list of distinguished winners. Along with SNA Sports, we are pleased to recognize him for his achievement and hard work," said DIII News editor and publisher Gary Rubin.

DIII News has named a Coach of the Year every season since 1993-94.

"Winning every game on the schedule takes an outstanding effort from the first day of practice to the final buzzer in March," said Jim Peterson, president of SNA Sports, a leading basketball goal and equipment manufacturer. "SNA Sports is honored to partner with DIII News to recognize Landry Kosmalski and all coaches in Division III college basketball."
