Wartburg College senior Katie Sommer has been named the 2018 Women's DIII News Player of the Year.

Sommer, the IIAC Player of the Year for the second straight season, averaged 14.8 points, 4.1 rebounds, and 5.8 assists per game while leading her team to a 31-1 record and a Final Four appearance. The senior guard led the conference in assists (91), ranked second in steals (43) and her assist-to-turnover ratio of 1.8 stands third.

Sommer headlines the 2018 WDIIN All-American team, where she is joined on the first team by Madison Temple from Thomas More, Bowdoin's Kate Kerrigan, Kaitlyn Read from NYU and Kelly Williams from Randolph-Macon.

WDIIN has named a Player of the Year every season since 1994.
